Art of Moving Integrated Move Management System

- Management and coordination of all move related activities throughout the organization.
- Call center staffed by experienced AOM Move Managers to schedule, plan and organize relocations.
- Seamless interface with AOM onsite services and preferred provider network.
- Online scheduling, tracking and management of move related activities.

YOUR ART OF MOVING TEAM

Art of Moving move managers and home managers are trained and experienced professionals who take care of the details you know, as well as those you don't know to expect.

They are uniquely qualified to manage all facets of a household or office relocation. They have the know-how to enlist the best efforts of movers and contractors, and to ensure seamless and successful outcomes. At the AOM Call Center they provide, by telephone and email, knowledgeable and effective support to individuals, groups and organizations relocating.

AOM managers enjoy the support of a central coordinating and dispatching capability as well as extensive data base management resources. We deliver highly personalized services while maintaining uniformity of standards and reliability in performance.
